"RITA, CAN YOU HEAR ME?"

The TV program, "Rita, Can You Hear Me?" which was such a success as a five-part series in October, will now be shown in a captioned half-hour version.

The 30-minute special features Gallaudet junior Rita Corey, but many other students also appear in the various scenes of campus life.

Be sure to watch WBAL-TV, on Monday evening, January 19, at 8:00!

AROUND AND ABOUT

--A portion of the new parking plaza will be available for use immediately. The parking area can be reached by an entrance on the north side of Hall Memorial Building.
--A planning meeting to form a national organization of deaf veterans will be held on February 10, from 6-8 p.m. in the Student Union Building. Please contact

Bill Saunders for details.

--The Sociology and Religion Departments now have their mailboxes located in the Counseling Center.

--"New Measures of Credibility; Universal Rights and Progress in Education of the Deaf," the paper which was presented by Edward C. Merrill, Jr. before the International Congress on Education of the Deaf in Tokyo is available in reprint form from the Office of Alumni and Public Relations.

--The President's Office and the Public Service Programs will co-sponsor a conference for school administrators on February 8, 9 and 10. Fifteen schools for the deaf will be represented.

GALLAUDET STATUE TO TOUR U.S.

The National Trust for Historic Preservation is undertaking a major bicentennial exhibition of the works of the sculptor Daniel Chester French and have asked the College's permission to borrow the statue of Thomas Hopkins Gallaudet and Alice to be a part of this special exhibition.

Both the Gallaudet College Board of Directors and the Gallaudet College Alumni Association have agreed to honor this request.

The exhibition will be shown at the Metropolitan Museum of Art in New York, the National Collection of Fine Arts in Washington, D.C., the Detroit Institute of Arts, and the Fogg Art Museum at Harvard University. It is estimated that at least one-half million persons will view the exhibit between
